

Proclamation

In recognition of Public Works Week
May 18-24, 2025

Whereas, public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities, and services that are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities and to the public health, high quality of life, and well-being of the people of Tucker, Georgia; and,

Whereas, these infrastructure, facilities, and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, who are engineers, managers, and employees at all levels of government and the private sector, who are responsible for rebuilding and maintaining our City's transportation and other structures and facilities essential for our citizens; and,

Whereas, it is in the public interest of the citizens, civic leaders, and children in Tucker to gain knowledge of and maintain an ongoing interest and understanding of the importance of public works and public works programs in their respective communities; and,

Whereas, the City of Tucker would like to pay tribute to our public works professionals, Ishri Sankar, Jeff Mueller, Jennifer Downer, Scott Caldwell, Jairus Reed, and all of those out in the field, and to recognize the substantial contributions they make to protecting our national health, safety, and advancing quality of life for all.

Now, therefore, let it be proclaimed, by the Mayor of the City of Tucker that the week of May 18 through 24, 2025, was recognized as Public Works Week.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Tucker to be affixed this 12th day of May 2025.

Attest:

Frank Auman, Mayor

Bonnie Warne, City Clerk
